St. James's, June 6.

THIS Day the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of London, accompanied by a good Number of the Reverend the Clergy of London, preſented the following Addreſs to His Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WHILE Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and obedient Subjects the Biſhop and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, are employing their Thoughts upon the Part they are to bear in the approaching Solemnity, piouſly devoted by your Majeſty to the Honour and Praiſe of Almighty God, the Author of Peace, and Giver of Victory, the true and affectionate Joy that fills their Hearts, moves them in all Humility to wait upon your Sacred Majeſty with their unfeigned Congratulations for the happy Succeſs of your Councils and Arms, in the timely ſuppreſſing of the late unnatural Rebellion, traiterouſly raiſed and carried on in this Kingdom by deſperate Men, and with ſuch wicked and pernicious Intent, as no true Subject of your Majeſty can think on without the greateſt Deteſtation.

Your Clergy, who during the Continuance of that Rebellion, have, upon fitting Opportunities, teſtified their Abhorrence of it, and readily offered up to God the Prayers appointed for that Occaſion, as they do now their Sacrifice of Praiſe for its being intirely quelled, ſhall always think it their Duty, and make it their Practice to beat down thoſe ſtrong Holds of Sin, thoſe damnable Principles and Poſitions maintained by Papiſts and others, that tend to the exciting of any inteſtine Commotions within theſe Kingdoms; and on the contrary, ſhall faithfully endeavour to fix upon the Minds of thoſe committed to their Charge, as well by the Example of their own Loyalty, as by all other ſuitable Means, ſuch Sentiments as are agreeable to the Rules of Submiſſion and Obedience laid down in holy Scripture, in order to preſerve, as far as in them lies, the publick Peace and Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Government (which God grant may be long) and to derive the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms to your Majeſty's Proteſtant Poſterity to all Generations.

Your faithful Clergy thus doing their Duty, according to the known Principles of our Holy Religion, which, under God, are the beſt Security of this Nation, as well againſt all Diſturbances in the State, as againſt Popery and Schiſm in the Church, do firmly truſt that the Church of England as it is by Law eſtabliſhed, and they with it, ſhall always continue under the gracious Protection of God and his Vicegerent; and that the frequent Declarations your Majeſty has been pleaſed to make to that Purpoſe, will at all Times have their ſuitable and ſalutary Accompliſhment, to the glory of God, the good of Souls, and the laſting Proſperity of your Majeſty and your Kingdoms.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

I Thank you for the Prayers you have put up for me during the late Rebellion, and your Readineſs to join in the Publick Thankſgiving to God for the Suppreſſion of it.

I hope your Endeavours to inculcate the Principles of Obedience and Peace, will be a Means of preventing the like Diſorders for the future; and you may depend on the Promiſes I have made you to ſupport and encourage the Church of England, as it is by Law eſtabliſhed.

Venice, May 25. We have an Account by a Merchant Ship arrived from Conſtantinople, that the Turkiſh Fleet is not yet ſailed from the Dardanelles, and that only ſome Sultanas, or Men of War, are come into the Archipelago for a Supply of Mariners, which are much wanted to Man the ſaid Fleet. We have alſo an Account by the ſame Ship, that the Troops from Egypt are to be tranſported to the Morea, from whence thoſe of Europe are to be withdrawn, in order to be employ'd in Hungary. An Engliſh Ship which is arrived from Corfu has brought Advice, that Sig. Flangini, with a Squadron of 12 Men of War, ſailed from thence about the middle of this Month for Zant, and was ſpeedily to be followed by eight others, the Captain General deſigning to remain with the reſt of our Fleet a little longer at Corfu. Letters from Dalmatia tell us, that the Troops which had been cantoned in ſeveral Poſts, had received Orders to draw together and encamp. This Week ſome ſmall Imbarkations of Troops were made, part for Dalmatia, the reſt for Corfu. On the 20th, being the Eve of Aſcenſion Day, the Pope's Nuncio aſſiſted with the Doge at Veſpers in St. Mark's Church; the next Morning the Doge, with the Senate, went aboard the Bucentaure to perform the annual Ceremony of marrying the Sea; about half Way to Lido the Patriarch met the Bucentaure, and after having aſſerted St. Peter's Right to the Sea in his own Gondola, went aboard the Bucentaure. Maſs being ſaid, and the Ring thrown into the Sea, the Doge returned to his Palace, where he entertained the Company with a magnificent Feaſt. The Earl of Eſſex arrived here laſt Week from Rome. On the 20th Mr. Cunningham, His Britannick Majeſty's Reſident, preſented a Memorial to the Senate, demanding all the Britiſh Subjects in the Service of the Republick to be diſcharged, and ſet at Liberty.

Madrid,

Madrid, June 1. The King having reſolved to ſend to the Aſſiſtance of the Pope, whoſe Dominions are threatned by the Turks, a Squadron of 5 Gallies, and another of 6 Men of War, the Gallies put to Sea from Cartagena on the 14th of laſt Month, under the Command of Don Balthaſar de Guevara. They are provided with all Neceſſaries for the whole Campaign, and were to make directly to Civita-Vecchia, there to receive the Pope's Orders. They are to be followed by the 6 Men of War which are in a readineſs to ſail from Cadiz, and are well armed, manned, and victualled for the Campaign. The King has conferred on Don Feliciano de Bracamonté, Major-General, the Government of Saragoſſa, vacant by the Deceaſe of Don Nicholas de Angulo, Lieutenant-General. 'Tis reported that the King has ſent to invite the Queen Dowager to come hither from Bayone, and that ſhe will arrive here before the End of next Month, to be preſent at the Chriſtening of the Infante Don Carlos. Two Days ago arrived an Expreſs from Corunna, with an Account that an Advice-Boat is come into that Port from Vera Cruz. The Portugueze Ambaſſador has made Rejoycings three Days ſucceſſively, for the Birth of a young Prince of Portugal, on the laſt of which Days he entertained the Grandees, and the foreign Miniſters, with a Comedy, and with Refreſhments of all ſorts.

On the 7th Inſtant about 10 in the Morning the King of Pruſſia arrived here incognito, being attended only by 6 or 7 General Officers, with a few Servants: His Majeſty alighted at the Inn called the Red Houſe, and after Dinner went a little Way out of Town, but returned in the Evening. The next Morning his Majeſty went to ſee the Paintings left by the deceaſed Painter Merian, and ſeveral Parts of this Town, while a ſmall Veſſel bought for him was getting ready; and after Dinner his Majeſty imbarked in order to go down the Rhine to the Dutchy of Cleves, where a conſiderable Number of Pruſſian Troops are in Motion. On the 9th a Courier from Duſſeldorp paſſed through this Place for Inſpruck, to carry to Prince Charles of Neubourg an Account of the Death of his Brother the Elector Palatine. A good Number of Palatine Troops are drawing together at Duſſeldorp, and in that Neighbourhood.
